VSA Florida and USF present "An Evening with Scott MacIntyre"

(Tampa, FL) September 2013 -- On October 18, 2013 at 8:00 pm, VSA Florida, the statewide organization on arts and disability, will welcome American Idol Finalist Scott MacIntyre to the University of South Florida Oval Theatre in the Marshall Student Center in Tampa. October is Disability Awareness Month nationwide making this a perfect time to host Scott's performance.

Additionally, VSA Florida is hosting German tactile artist, Horst Mueller at the USF Centre Gallery in the USF Marshall Center the week of October 12-18, 2013 for his exhibition, "Even Hands Can See". The Mueller exhibition closing reception is set for Friday, October 18, 2013, 5-8:00 pm in conjunction with the MacIntyre concert. An After Concert Dessert Reception will be held 9:30 – 11:00 pm.

ABOUT SCOTT MACINTYRE:

MacIntyre's contagious spirit of optimism and heartfelt stories take his audience on an emotional journey of love and yearning, hardship and hope, from someone who deeply understands the challenge of overcoming enormous adversity. Having always forged ahead when the world said to give up, Scott MacIntyre continues to be an inspiration to all who hear his music and story.

ABOUT HORST MUELLER:

Horst W. Mueller Horst is committed to raising disability awareness through his accessible art exhibitions and hands-on workshops. Horst blends his life experience with his love and artistic imagination, using his hands along with the traditional brushes and palette knives. This creative process results in a powerful multi-layered "three dimensional art".

ABOUT VSA Florida:

VSA Florida, the statewide arts and disability organization headquartered in the College of Education at the University of South Florida in Tampa, provides, supports and champions arts education and cultural experiences for and by people with disabilities. VSA Florida advocates the arts as a way of communication, a means to unite people of all abilities and a pathway to opportunities. In 2012, VSA Florida served over 119,000 individuals with disabilities through artist in residency programs, transition programs, community art classes, exhibitions and cultural events.
