

Stash The Cash Frequently Asked Questions

Q. How do I win up to $20,000 cash?

A. Register online at thewest.com.au/stash then collect as many Cash Coupons from The West Australian and / or The Weekend West and / or The Sunday Times in any given weekly competition period. There are 4 (four) weekly competition periods during the promotional period. Week 1 (one) includes Saturday, 19 October up to and including Friday 25 October 2019 and Week 2 (two) includes Saturday 26 October up to and including Friday 1 November 2019 and Week 3 (three) includes Saturday 2 November up to and including Friday 8 November 2019 and Week 4 (four) includes Saturday 9 November up to and including Friday 15 November 2019. At the end of each weekly competition period, one lucky reader will be randomly drawn as the winner and will get the chance to exchange their Cash Coupons for cold hard cash, up to the value of $20,000

Q. So let me get this straight, are there four draws to win up to $20,000 cash?

A. Yes! There are four separate weeks and each week we are giving away up to $20,000.

Q. Do I need to register each week?

A. No. You only need to register once for the entire promotion. Multiple registrations will be deleted. To be eligible for week 1 (one) draw you must register before 5pm Friday 25 October 2019. To be eligible for week 2 (two) draw you must register before 5pm Friday 1 November 2019. To be eligible for week 3 (three) draw you must register before 5pm, Friday 8 November 2019. To be eligible for week 4 (four) draw you must register before 5pm, Friday 15 November 2019.

Q. What happens if I am drawn as a weekly winner?

A. If you are drawn as a weekly winner, The West Australian will contact you via the phone number and/ or email address that you registered with. Once confirmed that you comply with the entry requirements to be eligible to claim the prize, you will be required to attend Newspaper House at 50 Hasler Rd Osborne Park within 48 hours of being confirmed as the winner to present all valid 'cash coupons' from that competition period. If a winner lives outside the Perth Metropolitan area they have the option to courier their valid 'cash coupons' within 48 hours of being notified to 50 Hasler Road for verification. The winner will do so at their own risk and cost. If the Cash Coupons are not validated within the 48 hour period the prize will be forfeited.

Q. If I am drawn as a winner of one of the weekly draws how much do I win?

A. If you are drawn as the winner of one of the competition periods you will win the amount in Australian Dollars to the same value of that weeks' cash coupons that you present to The West Australian within 48 hours of being verified as the winner up to the value of AU$20,000. Each winner can win a maximum of $20,000. Only the Cash coupons from the weekly competition period that you are deemed the winner will be valid to exchange for cash.

For example: if you have collected 8 Cash Coupons from The West Australian and/ or The Weekend West and / or The Sunday Times from the weekly competition period that you have been drawn the winner and the dollar values on all 8 coupons add up to $15,000, you will win AU$15,000. If you have collected 50 Cash Coupons from The West Australian and/ or The Weekend West and/ or The Sunday Times from the weekly competition period that you have been drawn the winner and the dollar values on all 50 coupons add up to $50,000, you will win AU$20,000.

Q. Please can you tell me one more time how I can enter to win up to $20,000 cash

A. Ok, all you need to do is:

1. Register at thewest.com.au/stash
2. Purchase The West Australian and/or The Weekend West and/ or The Sunday Times during a competition week.
3. Collect as many Cash Coupons as you can for the competition week
4. Wait to see if you are drawn as that week's winner
5. If you are drawn as that week's winner you will be notified by phone and/ or email and verify you comply with the entry requirements
6. Once verified you will have 48 hours to present all you Cash Coupons from that week's competition period to The West Australian
7. You will win in Australian Dollars the amount that all you Cash Coupons add up to. To the maximum of $20,000.

Q. Can I collect my Cash Coupons all from the same edition of the newspaper or do I need to purchase every day during the competition week?

A. You can collect your Cash Coupons from any edition so long as it is within the same competition week. That means you can purchase the same edition in order to collect Cash Coupons or you can purchase different copies throughout the competition week.

Q. Do I need to post in my Cash Coupons?

A. No. Keep your Cash Coupons in a safe place. If you are drawn as a weekly competition period winner you will have 48 hours to present them to The West Australian once verified as the winner. If the Cash Coupons are not validated within the 48 hour period the prize will be forfeited.

Q. How many Cash Coupons will be in each edition of the paper?

A. The number of Cash Coupons in each edition of the paper will vary. There will be at least one per edition.

Q. What dollar value will each Cash Coupon be worth?

A. Cash Coupons will differ in dollar value. The minimum value will be $500.

Q. I am a subscriber of the digital edition. Can I still enter to win?

A. Unfortunately this promotion is for print editions only. Look out for digital editions offers and promotions that we send to you.

Q. How can I contact The West Australian regarding queries about Stash For Cash?

A. Please contact our friendly staff on 1800 811 855 or alternatively email us at competitions@thewest.com.au.